

Doubt

Air Traffic Controller

We don't close the door
Why bother anymore
I know that you love me
We're just gettin' lazy
Things get in the way
Days bleed into days
The nights are when we're sleeping
I guess that's when we need it

Don't go to sleep
I don't want to lose ya
But I'm feeling bruised up
Like we've blown a fuse

All the lights have gone out
Everyone is a disaster
Let's see what's coming after
I am gonna need the benefit of the doubt

Felt you in the bed
I must've been misled
Did you mean to touch me?
Cause it made me happy

Don't go to sleep
I don't want to lose ya
But I'm feeling bruised up
Like we've blown a fuse
All the lights have gone out
Everyone is a disaster
Let's see what's coming after
I am gonna need the benefit of the doubt
