

Go Time

Air Traffic Controller

I might be the luckiest dude the world has ever seen
Sliding in
And making it
By the skin of my teeth
Everyone thinks my days are numbered
But all that said and done
I'm still rocking it
I'm confident
But the pressure is on

Don't nobody tell me what time it is
Cause I already know
It's go time
Go time
Go time, go time, go time, go!

Hindsight is 20/20 son of a gun
If I had only known
I'd be crushing it
And cashing in
And rolling in the dough
There's a lot of dirty work
That I'm willing to do
But it can't be all for naught
I can't hesitate
I must be great
If this is my last shot

Anything can happen
You keep sticking it out
Yeah that's what I've been told
But it's go time
Go time
Go time, go time, go time, go!

Don't nobody tell me what time it is
Cause I already know
It's go time
Go time
Go time, go time, go time

Don't nobody tell me what time it is

Go!...

(Now or never)
(Don't wait forever)
