Air Traffic Controller

Oh, I believed you from the first scene
Your walls within the mess we're in is unforgiving
Now when I try to speak I'm silenced
Hollow eyed I pass my time and always haunting

I go phantom
I go phantom
I go phantom

You who applied the perfect pressure
Like ripples in the water of a puddle just created
I wish that I could know you better
But some are here to disappear some ties are meant to sever

I go phantom
I go phantom
I go phantom

Oh I believed in was the first time
But skin is thin the mess we're in is undermining
Now when I try to speak I'm silenced
Owl eyed I pass my time in perfect pining

I go phantom
I go phantom
