

Walk

Air Traffic Controller

Well you should've heard me by now
Solved the mystery of how to tie me down
Instead all you do is talk talk talk talk
All you do is talk
Maybe I should walk

I know you think you've done your time
And I don't have the right to change my mind
But I've been giving it some thought thought thought thought
Giving it some thought

Oh the deadlines
And the guilt trips
These are hard times
But we've been through this
God you know I love you babe
But don't you ever threaten me
Cause baby I could walk

Baby I could walk

Oh and you're tired of feeling rejected
This isn't what you expected
Maybe we both had our doubts
Remember when everything changed
And I fell flat on my face
It's nothing I can erase
But I can get my own place
And try to figure this out

That's right. The deadlines
And the guilt trips
These are hard times
But this is bullshit
God you know I love you babe
But don't you ever threaten me
Cause baby I could walk

Baby I could walk

Do do do do do
Do do do do
Do do do do
Do do do do

Do do do do
Do do do do
Do do do do

Baby I could walk
Baby I could walk
Baby I could walk
Baby I could walk

Oh baby I could walk
Oh baby I could walk
Oh baby I could walk

Oh baby I could walk

Do do do do

Do do do do

Do do do do

Do do do do
