

The End

Airways

Staring at a touchscreen
Holding me back
Sell me what I don't need
Not keen there's my feedback

Beachball is me
Spinning round
There's no 4G
Shit

I know, I'm gonna be there till the end
This is why, I know
I'm gonna be there till the end

Sitting at a payphone
Please call me back
Gotta get a new home
Somewhere they can't contact

What happens to my email
When I die
Will I win a new one stumbling through the afterlife

I know, I'm gonna be here till the end
This is why, I know
I'm gonna be here till the end

Lights are flashing keeping me
Wide awake
Things are buzzing underneath
They won't let me get to sleep
