

Home

Aisha Badru

I roamed through the valley
Turned over every stone
Darling, I am certain
There's no place like home

I've seen many sunsets
Beautiful and bold
But they don't seem so special
Without your hand to hold

My wildest dreams cannot compete
You're what makes this home feel sweet
Even when we're far apart
You'll always have the coziest seat in my heart

We can build a fortress
This time made out of stone
I will plant a garden
We'll watch our children grow

If you get this message
I hope you are alone
Darling, I am certain
There's no place like home

My wildest dreams cannot compete
You're what makes this home feel sweet
Even when we're far apart
You'll always have the coziest seat in my heart