

Heaven's Gate

AJ Mitchell

Was so exhausted
Once had a heart but I lost it
Threw it right in the wind with my caution
Thought I'd never see it, never see it again
'Til you caught it
Looked in the mirror and I saw it
Done with the fake and the toxic (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Walkin' up to the edge, had me holdin' my breath

Before we met
I thought I'd seen, oh, the best of the best
Through a broken lens
Found a lucky seven and I saw heaven

And it looks like you
And it looks like you
And it looks like you
It looks like you, it looks like you (Oh, oh, oh)
Open up, baby, I'm coming through
See heaven's gates now I'm ready to
Breathe in the lights and the chemicals
Oh, oh yeah, oh

Halo shining (Halo shining)
You struck the room like lightning
And you hurt me so much that I like it
But it never hurts too much (Never hurts too much)

Before we met
I thought I'd seen, oh, the best of the best (Best)
Through a broken lens (Through a broken lens)
Found a lucky seven and I saw heaven

And it looks like you
And it looks like you
And it looks like you (And it looks like you)
It looks like you, it looks like you
Open up, baby, I'm coming through
See heaven's gates now I'm ready to (You)
Breathe in the lights and the chemicals
Oh, oh yeah

Was so exhausted
Once had a heart but I lost it
Threw it right in the wind with my caution
Found a lucky seven and I saw heaven

And it looks like you (You)

And it looks like you, it looks like you...
