

Hopeful

AJ Mitchell

It's true, nothing good comes easy just like you, oh-oh-oh-oh
Your smile, your only self defense it drives me wild, oh, oh-oh-oh-oh

I'm so persistent I can't walk away
Know your existence will just be a phase
'Cause you get close to me
Close enough, I can taste it
Close enough, I can't take it, no

I lean in and you said not in a million years
Girl, a million one, I'll still be standing right here
No chance, no chance in hell
I ain't going anywhere if you couldn't tell

I'm still hopeful, something inside of my mind
Saying be hopeful, something inside of your eyes
Saying be hopeful, be hopeful, the way that you're looking through mine
Saying be hopeful, hopeful, hopeful

I know, I know you know I know there's something more, ooh
'Cause why, you could have been anywhere tonight, but you're by my side

I'm so persistent I can't walk away
Know your existence will just be a phase
'Cause you get close to me
Close enough, I can taste it
Close enough, I can't take it, no

I lean in and you said not in a million years
Girl, a million one, I'll still be standing right here
No chance, no chance in hell
I ain't going anywhere if you couldn't tell

I'm still hopeful, something inside of my mind
Saying be hopeful, something inside of your eyes
Saying be hopeful, the way that you're looking through mine
Saying be hopeful, hopeful, hopeful, hopeful

I'm so persistent I can't walk away
Know your existence will just be a phase
'Cause you get close to me
Close enough, I can taste it
Close enough, I can't take it, no
Can't take it, no

Not in a million years
Girl, a million one, I'll still be standing right here
No chance, no chance in hell
I ain't going anywhere if you couldn't tell

I'm still hopeful, something inside of my mind
Saying be hopeful, something inside of your eyes
Saying be hopeful, the way that you're looking through mine
Saying be hopeful, hopeful, hopeful
