

Won't Be Long

AJ Mitchell

Me in the mirror now's a little older
Still I don't know enough
Weight of the world somehow sits on my shoulders
And I'm just catching up
My mother said
Oh nothings ever easy right away

Trying to be someone
Ambitions dangerous
It comes and goes so fast
The things I haven't done
I'm so impatient
I want it all so bad
My father said
Oh nothings ever easy right away

Ooo I promise it won't be long
Why don't you wait and see
All you could ever want
We'll get where it's meant to be
Promise it won't be long
Ooo I promise it won't be long
Why don't you wait and see
All you could ever want
We'll get where it's meant to be
Promise it won't be long

Why do we have to live
In different places
I wanna be with you
You're falling out of this
My heart is breaking
You ask what can we do
And then you said
Oh, nothing's ever easy right away
Oh, but we're better than yesterday

Ooo I promise it won't be long
Why don't you wait and see
All you could ever want
We'll get where it's meant to be
Promise it won't be long
Ooo I promise it won't be long
Why don't you wait and see
All you could ever want
We'll get where it's meant to be
Promise it won't be long