Aja

Yeah
Yeah
Why you hurtin' me?

Why do you say you want somebody
When you don't really want nobody?
I don't want you for your body
Or your shiny new Bugatti
Looks like you playin' a game
Runnin' 'round and pointin' the blame

You know you leadin' me on
You gotta admit you doin' me wrong
Sayin' that you wanna be with me long
'Til the next day, ain't singin' my song
How many times a day you used to text me?
Feelin' like you really wanna next me
No explanation like "let's be friends"
Got me hype like I'm takin' an E-Pen
Got my hormones actin' crazy
Give it to me, now you actin' hazy
What about when I bought you daisies
And we shared a plate of bolognese?
Fuck is you doin'? Left me on read
Got me sinkin' into my bed
Thinkin' "damn, is it me you tryna dead?"
Funny, it's you I can't forget

Why do you say you want somebody
When you don't really want nobody?
I don't want you for your body
Or your shiny new Bugatti
Looks like you playin' a game
Runnin' 'round and pointin' the blame

Why do you say you want somebody
When you don't really want nobody?
I don't want you for your body
Or your shiny new Bugatti
Looks like you playin' a game
Runnin' 'round and pointin' the blame

How you say you interested
But the next day you not invested?
Can't hear ya, sound congested
With the bullshit I've ingested
Feels like you're okay hurtin' on me
Buried me alive, puttin' dirt on me
Just say that you don't really want me
Stop givin' me that look and kissin' on me
Say that you want it, the next day forget it
Treatin' me like you don't even sweat it
It might be a bitch, bein' real with me
'Cause you can't be real how you feel with me
Still think you pretty and gorgeous
My love is enormous
I'm shy like a tortoise, pobre like Horace

We is strong, how you ignore us?
How you ignore us?

Why do you say you want somebody
When you don't really want nobody?
I don't want you for your body
Or your shiny new Bugatti
Looks like you playin' a game
Runnin' 'round and pointin' the blame

Am I wrong for saying you did me dirty?
Lookin' at me then bein' really flirty
Is there a reason you don't really want me?
When I'm in bed, the thought really haunts me

Everything I put behind, creepin' on Looked through your soul, no peepin' tom
When I ain't with you, I ain't sleepin' long
Can't deal with the thought of us bein' wrong
But then I don't really wanna be right
Spending time with you is really a delight
To be with you, I'll put up a fight
But you walk away into the night
I swear you're a demon in disguise
But I can't stop lookin' into your eyes
Brown like the earth, blue like the ocean
And a smile that'll start a commotion
I swear you've got me feeling emotions
What's really good? Give me a notion

Why do you say you want somebody
When you don't really want nobody?
I don't want you for your body
Or your shiny new Bugatti
Looks like you playin' a game
Runnin' 'round and pointin' the blame

Why do you say you want somebody
When you don't really want nobody?
I don't want you for your body
Or your shiny new Bugatti
Looks like you playin' a game
Runnin' 'round and pointin' the blame
