

Lost!

Aja

You're trapped in a maze
Danger lies ahead
Turn after turn
Can't leave the way you left
(Can't leave the way you left, no, no, no)

Wake up just to find you're lost
Dark red eyes gazin' upon you
Now you're froze, stuck
Move closer to the figure
Just to find your jaw's locked
Tell me what happened to the man
Who claimed to be so bossed up
Brace for it now
'Cause you can hear it comin'
Is it livin' in the trees
Or does it hide in the comments?
Run from it how?
[?] bludgeoned
Every time it creeps up
You can feel it in your stomach
The more you clench at the pain
The more it seems to tighten
How can something so small
Take down a titan?
Did you see how big it was?
[?] and you're frightened
Pointin' that finger at you
Your senses heightened
Why does a thing attackin' everyone else
Look so much like you?
Have you been chasin' your evil twin
Or is the evil hidden in you?
You're runnin', you're runnin'
But you just cannot hide
You're runnin', you're runnin'
From what's in your inside

Your danger lies ahead
Turn after turn
Can't leave the way you left
(Can't leave the way you left, no, no, no)
You're trapped in a maze
Danger lies ahead
Turn after turn
Can't leave the way you left
(Can't leave the way you left, no, no, no)

Lost in the cornfield, I lurk in the shadows
Born from darkness, I always follow
I am a scarecrow [?]
I am La Llorona mixed Frida Kahlo
(This is real witchcraft) I'm about to get dark
I don't [?] money, I precipitate money
Flow drip like honey, slow [?]
Better fall back, ho, better hop off, bunny
'Cause you ain't bad, bitch, nah, you not funny, never, never

You niggas runnin', I'm too cunnin', you see
That's why you thinkin' that you comin' for me
Let's reverse that, yeah, 'cause I cum at you, see
I bust a nut every time that you gunnin' for me
Yeah, I get excited every time you say my name
Bitch, I'm on my John Kramer

So welcome to the game
Danger lies ahead
Turn after turn
Can't leave the way you left
You're trapped in a maze
Danger lies ahead
Turn after turn
Can't leave the way you left
(Can't leave the way you left, no, no, no)
