

Antidote

AK

I think the only antidote is to let it go
Easier said than done considering you've seen my soul
There's so much I hold onto, but I can't anymore
We want the best for both of us, I think that means we both-
Just fly away
It's time to leave
Don't wanna say bye but hey
I tried my best

Caught up in this circle racing 'round, now I'm back to you
Don't feel pressure, some things we'll just never figure out (yeah)
But there's so much I wanna run to
But there's no one I want but you
No, I'm not lying to you (no, no)
I can never lie (no, no)
I swear to God, you're nothing but a Goddess
I really want your body laid up right next to mine
Now, hol' up, can I be honest?
Now, this a promise
How you claim to know love when you ain't had none of mine yet?
I don't even know anymore
It's looking like the curtains closed
I can't keep fighting anymore, I think it's time we hit the road

I think the only antidote is to let it go
Easier said than done considering you've seen my soul
There's so much I hold onto, but I can't anymore
We want the best for both of us, I think that means we both-
Just fly away
It's time to leave
Don't wanna say bye but hey
I tried my best

Your eyes look at mine, mine can't seem to let go
Guess it's 'cause they're stuck in the honey that yours echo
Some things I have said, never meant for it to upset you
I ain't tryna be toxic but baby, I can't forget you
Honestly, I thought it'd be easy
I hide but sometimes I wish you'd need me
The deafening silence when I'm tryna sleep it's-
Like the voice in my head's on fire, screaming-
Begging to get out, now I'm losing Z's
Wish to go back to how it used to be
But life came around and it ruled that we-
Should take time alone and get used to being-
That way, but can't help but fight back
I can't sit and pretend to be aight when-
I thought this entire time we's on the right path
I was so blind to the feelings that I might catch
Until I caught 'em, and caught 'em all
I fell harder than Autumn, that's by default
Biggest puzzle to exist and you had it solved
Put the pieces together and saw my heart and I-
I hate knowing this is my last time with you (aye, mmm)
I would fight, but I feel our time is due
I know it hurts but

I think the only antidote is to let it go
Easier said than done considering you've seen my soul
There's so much I hold onto, but I can't anymore
We want the best for both of us, I think that means we both-
Just fly away
It's time to leave
Don't wanna say bye but hey
I tried my best
