

Critics

AK

Yeah, yeah
Everyone a critic (critic, critic, critic)
Mad they see I'm winnin' (winnin', winnin', winnin')
Everything I said I did it (did it, did it, yeah I did it)
It's survival of the fittest (fittest, fittest, fittest)
Everyone a critic (critic, critic, critic)
Oh shit
Mad they see I'm winnin' (winnin', winnin', winnin')
Everything I said I did it (did it, did it, yeah I did it)
It's survival of the fittest (fittest, fittest, fittest)

Ain't nobody wanna see a winner
Jealousy turn a damn nun to a sinner
Confidence, height, walk, talk, keep my chin up
Spread love, give 'em hell when I pop up out of the sprinter
I don't even like to run no but I run this
Steady pace as a marathon man we lovin' it
Life gave me a paradise and I rolled it
Now my life paradise from goin' all in
Always wanna gamble
Bitches boutta handful
I'm so lit
That's why they blow me I'm a candle
Only celebration
All it took was patience
This is all earned
Hard work and dedication
Now that ya'll flight had a boy get a fall
Pray I go broke till this breaks and they all
Turn in to fat shit
It killed me to mark
It's been [?] years
But I doubt that I'm sore

Head of the curvature I passed 'em
Sometimes I best go for the speed of mollasses
Ya'll woulda thought I been teaching gymnastics
[?] comes a Benjy Franklin doing backflips

Backflip and now they DMs
Workin' I am
From then to P.M
They all taught but I don't ever see 'em
Like
I ain't even gave a reason but
And that's why

Everyone a critic (critic, critic, critic)
Mad they see I'm winnin' (winnin', winnin', winnin')
Everything I said I did it (did it, did it, yeah I did it)

Yeah
I been thinkin' 'bout the long run
Nowadays I been on one
Mindset leveled up some
Tables turned came back the strong one
Now I pray for ya'll know you insecure
Said I never worked but to keep this short
I been at it workin'
Never lackin'
All about that action
Maybe I'm an addict for it
Everybody tell me settle down
Mad at me I put the peddle down
No saying people gettin' run over
I ain't worried about a fuckin' medal now
Held the medals on a pedestal
Now I ain't even stressin' 'bout it
I'm just lettin' lose
No trophy tellin' me the worth of everything I worked for
I ain't second to nobody else
I done built my throne
No help, did it on my own
I don't ever need an outsider verifying anything with my name on it
All my sets, they are not the same
See how I'm doin', yeah I'm to blame
Proud of me cause now I got the flame
Don't matter though cause nowadays

Everyone a critic (critic, critic, critic)
Mad they see I'm winnin' (winnin', winnin', winnin')
