

Dumb

AK

Yeah you suck everybody else that does this sucks

1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10

People that shut the door on me but now won't shake my hand

'Member baddest bitches never would hit my line back

Now they calling me to fucking push my time line back

But I ain't with it

Ok maybe I'm down but promise you'll make it quick

I got so much I'm tryna do before my time here is finished

The time come to send you out, just know I ain't tryna hear it

Career is up off the ground now and I ain't letting you near it

I ain't letting you near it

Sending all of you flying so high like now you a spirit

I'm just tryna be fly but I'm tired of flying Spirit

That's why I make moves in silence cause problems just what I'm nearing

I think it's so fucking crazy they laughed at me but look at me now

Living now

All of the things lil me was dreaming about

Let it out

There's been some times I felt like giving the towel

In denial

That's what you is cause I'm the man of the hour

Career is up off the ground now I'm not letting (yeah)

Fuck school I ain't need it to get a master

I own every single one

My music's mine that's a fact

And they blood boil

I'm spoiled

Forget 'bout the action it took to be in this position

To make it happen is beyond just rappin'

They all sufficient at catfishin'

When they thought they be cappin'

I kick it off like the bottle trick that's happening

On the internet

Been a threat

Do a show and then get a check

Making more than my teachers get

For a 45-minute set

They was tellin' me I should pray

Sayin' music was not the way

Cause I never once showed fear

Even though

Never once did I contemplate

From the jump it was bombs away

Known I'm different since July 18th '99 we are not the same

Born deaf music found me along the way
Forever grateful now I'm making a change from sounds I make Universe works crazy
I been thinking 'bout how it gave the rest of the world a king
It turns out that his name was Austin (ay)

I just hit the bank wired 20k to my management
He make 20% so go ahead do the math again
Tell me how much I made
See your face and I know you are mad as shit
Sorry that's how it goes when you young and focused on plans you set
Ain't no one tell me shit
Ain't no one telling me how
I put my all into this
Ain't no one counting me out
With just the mic I'll get rich
Copped the fam a new house
And filled the driveway with whips
One for each day to go out
