

Go Away

AK

I made it out my own way
Cause I paved my own way
They all want me to go away
Hatin' cause they know I never go away
Hatin' cause I never go away
They all want me to go away
Because I paved my own way
I made it out my own way

(Yeah)

I'm 18 with great dreams
Rocking with a great team
Turning things to real life, I thought it was make believe
I'm out here, working, grinding, every day's the same thing
Cooking hits I love this shit, It's clear this shit was made for me
Wonder why you stuck you accept where you are
I can't relate only happy if I'm next to the stars
Going hard, every bar, leave your chest ripped apart
I'm leaving minds blown like Kennedy in his car
Top class word smith
Whenevers I go in
Invest into myself, all I've seen is a
Never had a lot of pros, all cons that's all shit
That drove me to work, cause the doors that were closed now open
Rappers like some hungry fish, bitin' once I cast out
Stupid fake they duplicatin', I just sit and laugh loud
I'm smilin' like its a Mayweather, mindset of the cash cow
Only winnin' only winnin working till I pass out

I made it out my own way
Cause I paved my own way
They all want me to go away
Hatin' cause they know I never go away
Hatin' cause I never go away
They all want me to go away
Because I paved my own way
I made it out my own way

Yeah

I be runnin' for the bills like I'm Shady McCoy
Real shit, top dog, that's why they hate on the boy
Boutta leave the world shook, cause now we making some noise
Thought I was looking at the sky, my first ride in the Royce (soon)
My total views will match the number in my bank account
You mad cause for months you've been stuck with the same amount
But that's new, as far as I know I'm the greatest out
While I'm out on my paper route, you stuck with the paper route
And you stay tryna flex, always flashin' ya hunneds
On the gram
Boy you can't even 'ford a gram for your blunties (funny, haha)
I stay laughing at that
Only thing you say to hurt me is that I'm wack with the raps (listen)
Boy you full of shit, your stomach probly backed up
It's crazy soon as you make a couple bucks, they start to act up
(Listen) Man they all got it backwards
Like they boutta roll a blunt, it's funny how that adds up

I made it out my own way
Cause I paved my own way
They all want me to go away
Hatin' cause they know I never go away
They all want me to go away
Because I paved my own way
I made it out my own way

I made it out my own way, own way
I made it out my own way, own way
If you hating man you so fake
So fake, nowadays they be so fake (yeah)
I made it out my own way, own way
I made it out my own way, own way
I made it out my own way, own way
I made it out my own way, own way

Made it out my own way
I made it out my own way, own way
Made it out my own way, own way
I made it out my own way
Made it out my own way
