

Ignorance Is Bliss

AK

I been thinkin' 'bout life
And things I maybe took for granted
But I know somethin' ain't right
I did it but can't tell if I'm really winnin'

But I don't wanna know
Ignorance is bliss, I don't wanna hear it
Please just let it go
I don't wanna hear a thing, I just wanna win it
Did I do this wrong?
That's what I'm askin' God
He told me I'm fine long as I don't fold
Long as I don't fold
Ooh yeahh

Yeah
This shit ain't nothin' like I thought it'd be
Was always homies with pressure but now it's all on me
This shit's a gift and a curse but that's somethin' y'all don't see
I feel your energy
You 'bout ready to give up and just pass the ball to me like
Like I ain't trippin' 'bout shit for myself and what I built
Still tryna wrap my head around how all this shit is real
You walk a mile in my shoes, you probably break your heels
And never talk to me again 'cause now you feel how fuckin' real this shit is
I ain't trippin' 'bout no bullshit
You get a taste and probably never take a full sip
Textbook success, I got a check in every box
And still, I question if I'm winnin' or not
Yeah

But I don't wanna know
Ignorance is bliss, I don't wanna hear it
Please just let it go
I don't wanna hear a thing, I just wanna win it
Did I do this wrong?
That's what I'm askin' God
He told me I'm fine long as I don't fold
Long as I don't fold
Ooh yeahh

Fuck
I just been thinkin'
Blessings around me, still feel like I'm sinkin'
And I been drinkin', smokin' and tryin' my best to escape it
Supposed to erase it
Guess that didn't happen, yet tryna be patient
Feel like I created a life and a dream, so why am I complainin'?
Used to be outgoin'
Now I'm the type that you tell to go out more
And I try to go out more
But it's hard when you feel like you can't trust nobody from the outdoors
They run they mouth more like it's cardio
Let 'em run with it, see how far they go
Know I been a threat, tryna get in my head and it's hard
The more I win and dreams fulfilled
I'm scared my soul growin' empty

You say you want what I have
But lately, I'm feelin' envy
They give me praise, I give 'em thanks
But I still feel something's missing
I just hope the love around me's real and no one is pretending
Fuck

But I don't wanna know
Ignorance is bliss, I don't wanna hear it
Please just let it go
I don't wanna hear a thing, I just wanna win it
Did I do this wrong?
That's what I'm askin' God
He told me I'm fine long as I don't fold
Long as I don't fold
Ooh yeahh
