

Life Like This

AK

This song is gonna be so fucking fire bruh
It's so crazy how things work, fuck
They wasn't ready from the start and they still not ready now
Haha, yeah

Never been a time like this, ain't nobody grind like this (nahh)
Every single rhyme I spit, y'all know I supply my best (yahh)
Used to all talk they shit, I let them all talk they shit (yahh)
Now everybody ride my dick, but they ain't living life like this (nahh)
Never been a time like this, ain't nobody grind like this
Every single rhyme I spit, y'all know I supply my best
Used to all talk they shit, I let them all talk they shit
Now everybody ride my dick, but they ain't living life like this (nahh)

Flow so dumb leave 'em brain dead
Shoulda known that 'fore you came in Shoulda known that the flow so sick, catch a cold leave you with a red nose like a reindeer
Rappers stay whining like aged grapes
None of them grinding, they play it safe
I do what I'm do, I'm a-ok
I'm magic with mics I'm David Blaine
King of this, everybody claims that I stay facts, ain't nobody tryna face that Everybody taking shots, where your aim at
I haven't been hurt once by your lame ass
I'm merciless now and they say what ain't
Cause I'm going harder than these 808s
I shatter careers I'ma break your place
Take your melee you bitch you could save the day
Fuck

Never been a time like this, ain't nobody grind like this (nahh)
Every single rhyme I spit, y'all know I supply my best (yahh)
Used to all talk they shit, I let them all talk they shit (yahh)
Now everybody ride my dick, but they ain't living life like this (nahh)
Never been a time like this, ain't nobody grind like this
Every single rhyme I spit, y'all know I supply my best
Used to all talk they shit, I let them all talk they shit (yeah yuh)
Now everybody ride my dick, but they ain't living life like this
(Nahh)

I'm back in business, back up in this
Don't know what's happening, I'm acting vicious
Old folk acting fishy, have opinions
Don't know the half of it, you in my face I'mma slap you silly
I took a shot and I ran with it
I ended up in LA, I'm a ram with it
Killed the game, keep a candle lit
Leaving everybody froze like some mannequins
Bitch I'm the man in this
Moving to the top, never stop like a clock
Like my handle understand I'm the realest
When I step into the booth, too smooth
Don't snooze, wake up cause you know I'm 'bout to kill it
What a motherfucking price they gon' pay
If they don't get the fuck out my way

Why you 'bout to sleep on AK?
Who the fuck sleep on AK?

Never been a time like this, ain't nobody grind like this (nahh)
Every single rhyme I spit, y'all know I supply my best (yahh)
Used to all talk they shit, I let them all talk they shit (yahh)
Now everybody ride my dick, but they ain't living life like this (nahh)
Never been a time like this, ain't nobody grind like this
Every single rhyme I spit, y'all know I supply my best
Used to all talk they shit, I let them all talk they shit
Now everybody ride my dick, but they ain't living life like this (Nahh)
