

No Way

AK

I see so many eye balls... I lost it... But it ain't my fault... I promise.. . Please don't God no... Don't let me fall in... But let me fall in, I cause d this... Know I'm not the one to blame... But I am to blame... For a lot of things... But I'd never say it... Why'd I say it... Say it ain't wrong but I know you won't time have a feeling it's time to pay up...

HUH Wait, be easy on me...
No Way, only in your dreams...
No grace, I did what I did...
No thanks, I know what I need...
HUH Wait, be easy on me...
No Way, only in your dreams...
No grace, I did what I did...
No thanks, I know what I need...

I know I'm sinner, but lord please be forgiving... I promise that I could do better... I'm lying shit who am I kidding... I know deep inside it's who I am that's ridding... Me of any ties of the guys that was with me... So sick of my mind being wildly misleading... All the bad vibes in my life started i n me... And I had the audacity to blame the world, but I ain't even think ab out... How what I put in the universe eventually will find it's way around.. .

I don't even know if this sound right... Fuck it I gotta face consequences o f how I... Really have allowed this... I feel like I'm drowning... Why you s hake your head when I asked if I make it out this... HUH

Wait, be easy on me...
No Way, only in your dreams...
No grace, I did what I did...
No thanks, I know what I need...
HUH Wait, be easy on me...
No Way, only in your dreams...
No grace, I did what I did...
No thanks, I know what I need...

Everybody I know got problems... Everybody I know's done rotten... Shit befo re so why am I here? In what way is you gon' profit... Give me something, wa it I got it... Created my mind, so I take everything with such a heavy heart ... Empathy levels rising... Getting a taste of my medicine... If my mind do , my heart won't forget it then... I feel the evidence... Yes regret it can. .. We both let it go it won't happen again... I can guarantee that that's on everything... Look in my eyes ain't no lie that's on everything... Now's th e time to do right and I'm ready and I heard if don't I prolly won't make it to heaven then...

HUH Wait, be easy on me...
No Way, only in your dreams...
No grace, I did what I did...
No thanks, I know what I need...

I know that I deceived
Was tryna keep the peace
Now I'm behind all the hurt

That's clearly distanced you from me...
I never lied in a verse tho...
Hope that calms your nerves bro
You probably won't believe me
I'll prove the worth of my word tho...
You gave me big dream... Tryna get there without ripping my spine out...
Chase relentlessly... Writing so much dnt know how I ain't rhymed out...
That's when it hit me... You're the feeding my mind when it winds down...
You gave me this gift please... Don't take it away might as well cut my lights out... NO!

HUH Wait, be easy on me...
No Way, only in your dreams...
No grace, I did what I did...
No thanks, I know what I need...
