

Restless

AK

I ain't laid down in a minute
Lotta people fake cry when they winning
They want you to stay down with the vision
Hate to see the way a smile hitting different
Got me tripping, nah I ain't never pray down on your wishes
They ain't even staying 'round here to pivot
We never had a talk, clouds hit the vision
Pace around, I ain't laid down in a minute

It's not about what you think, it's always 'bout what you know
Cause angels turn into snakes, the venoms worse one to close
To you they know all deep shit, use it against you tryna keep you down
But it's all bellow me, thinking I'ma get down with the shit
Double crossing, leave the coffins and you bound to get hit
To be honest, I ain't know I think this about you is different
So is staying here a little bit more cause I ain't expect this for a minute
Hit the gas it won't let up, smoke behind me in the mirror, I'm gone
Hope it gets better, better, leave the bridge and [?] it
Cause what's a little more damage? Fuck it

I ain't laid down in a minute (Down in a minute)
Lotta people fake cry when they winning ([?])
They want you to stay down with the vision ([?])
Hate to see the way a smile hitting different
Got me tripping, nah I ain't never pray down on your wishes (Always [?])
They ain't even staying 'round here to pivot (I suppose)
We never had a talk, clouds hit the vision (Lots of visions)
Pace around, I ain't laid down in a minute

[?] everything is changing in my head
World looks different as I'm grown, now I'm afraid to lay in the bed
How can rest if I know hustlers out here grinding for [?]
As you climb up, [?] people in your life will leave is true
And it might happen cause they salty to simply see you succeed
Or dreams dried up because they never watered they seeds
But that shit ain't my faucet cause if you calling just to beg me
For ways to get you out your own shit don't respect me
Now I ain't got time for it, that's the way you made it go
You mad I'm trying to make a dream come true
It sucks that I can't say the same for you, cause you've been

Laying down for a minute (Down, down, down, down)
And you've been fake proud when I'm winning
You want me to stay down with the vision
Hate to see the way my smile hitting different
Got me tripping, nah I ain't never pray down on your wishes (Always [?])
They ain't even staying 'round here to pivot (I suppose)
We never had a talk, clouds hit the vision (Lots of visions)

Pace around, I ain't laid down in a minute (Ohh)
