

You

AK

Yeah

I don't believe you believe when I say I love you
Used to not believe I'm the reason that you was confused
Your eyes are like a mirror, for every feeling that runs through

h
Your heart and mind and it's showing me that I ain't being enough

For the person I love the most
I know I've been busy but it ain't for me girl, it's for us
Some times spent gon' be dissing and all we need is trust
All my life, you got all of mine, I just need all of yours
I know that I used to hide
And I know it wasn't right
But deep down I always knew I wanted you

All I ever think about is you
Tell me what you need, that's what I do
I just want to be the one for you
And I, know I got my flaws
But ain't nobody I'm working [?] but you
You, you
You, you

I was blind cause this [?] fuck that I'm doing so
I never [?] less attention could throw you off
But it's only on my work, there's nobody you should trip about
You trust [?] hurt, but on God, [?] just hear me out
Don't, don't cut me out and tell me it's over
Can't have you doubting cause then we be both hurt
Just listen, I wanna give you that closure, mmm-mmm

Cause it's you, all I ever think about is you
Tell me what you need, that's what I do
I just want to be the one for you
And I, know I got my flaws
But ain't nobody I'm working [?] but you
You, you
You, you
