All I Know

AKA

AKA he's a beast, he's a problem though
The one that you motherfuckers should solve but don't Spin six CD shuttles then revolve my flow
Six joints in and your coffin close

See me in the club I'm in my office clothes
No plan B this is all I know
Broke bitches looking where the bottle went
But she be lucky if she get McDonalds man

Ahh, I'm so professional
I spit the truth it's like this booth is my confessional
I'm under pressure hardly sober in my session now Rappers feel inferior, I'm focused on them hits but my girl missing her peri od
That shit that make me go crazy, I'm still a fucking baby No ready for no ba bies
Baby, want me to stay a while
I wanna make her smile but money don't make itself
Now I'm loading up my baggages, in pursuit of happiness
Told her that I dealt with the flaws of my character
I'm headed to the capital, cape of good dope
Nikki got some girls who gon' be some good hosts
She gon' be like "See? There you go again"
That's why I'm in a club on my fucking BBM
That's why I'm never trusted when I'm in DBN
We work it out then we go right back to the begin

I need a paradigm shift on a double
A paradise somewhere in my mind I can run to I, once upon a time you and I was a couple
But now you turn to ice everytime I try touch you Wish I could press rewind, on every single line
When I was kicking it with different bitches every night
They say that love is blind, you see that camera clickin' in my eyes
Now everytime I need to go you need to pick a fight
I be leaving for domestic
See me by the exit, Jesus on my necklace
The evil's on my guest list
Yes, this is the path I chose, cut deeper than the pieces of the hearts I br oke
And she gon be like "Why we go through this every week?
You taking all my energy I need a new release"
That's why we best enemies when I'm in CPT
We work it out then we turn in 180 degrees

We thought this love was ever green
You told me that my loving would be all you ever need Lucky for you, it's the last time I ever leave
I'd rather die on my feet than try to live on my knees
The party scene tore us apart
So many new beginnings I don't know where to start
Sometimes I wonder if you think about me at all
Shit all you gotta do is turn that radio on (Let's Go)
