AKA

You, you know the problem, chief is that err...
You, you rappers
You, you, you, you, you are determined to take all the girls
Which is not the way to go, because we as the cadres
Believe in redistributing the resources of the land
And we feel that err...
The ladies that you bring forth
Are not just for you, we feel as the cadres that err...
We must share

Ayasab' amagwala
He dubul'ibhunu
Dubula...
He dubul'ib...

What we're trying to do err...
Is to mobilize the club
Jah!
