

Hearts in Stereo

Akcent

I left my heart last night again in Goa
And I found the peace dancing with no one
I left my heart last night again in Goa
And I found the peace dancing with no one

When two hearts are beating we feel love refrains
I give my soul as a promise
We hold our hands through the storm and the rain
It's never late to imagine

I left my heart last night again in Goa
And I found the peace dancing with no one
I left my heart last night again in Goa
And I found the peace dancing with no one
