

Stole My Heart

Akcent

Baby you are a fountain of flowing desire
Can I float in you, inside of you
Can I feel the warm my summer rain
Fall upon my skin, can I feel it too

Girl you stole my heart,
From the first word you said
Girl you stole my heart
Everyday, everyday

Baby you are the hope that I travel on today
A million miles away, a million miles away
And I found my way I found my way
You gain my heart, I feel it everyday

Girl you stole my heart,
From the first word you said
Girl you stole my heart
Everyday, everyday
