You know me
You know I'm like
This since I was young
You know me
You know I'm like
This since I was young

I think quite some
Time has passed
But I still can't keep a straight face
About this situation
Everyone is smiling
As if nothing happened
But I still can't get used
To this kind of atmosphere

I'm getting sad, I'm hanging my head low
Placing my line of vision farthest away from here
They'll think I'm still not grown and I'm still immature
But if knowing the world means being like you

I don't wanna know it
You know me, I'm like that
I want you to know me slowly
You know me, I was always like that
I can't easily hide my feelings
You know this too

You know me
You know I'm like
This since I was young
You know me
You know I'm like
This since I was young

I'm lowering my head
At this reality that I keep seeing
It'll be hard to tempt me with sweet words
But you don't even know that
And you keep trying to talk to me
You think I'm being shy
But I'm just uncomfortable

I want to secretly leave
But I'm pretending to have fun
Everyone looks so natural
I'm the only one
Who's making things awkward

You know me, I'm like that
I want you to know me slowly
You know me, I was always like that
I can't easily hide my feelings
You know this too

You know me
You know I'm like
This since I was young
You know me
You know I'm like
This since I was young
