

What Does It Take

Al Green

What does it take for love to call you
What does it take to have a little joy
What do you expect of a boy who loves you
Hey, you want me cray cause I packed your pillow zoo

I'm gonna hula, can't get over you
You make my, all my dreams, everyone come true
I've got some taste for the rain to fall
You left me and I can't get over you
Oh, you're in denial

What does it take, I'm out of my mind
I found love in the nick of time
(Ooh) You make my world go (Ooh) round and round
(Ooh) You let me know that my love (Ooh) never hit the ground

What does it take (Hey, hey, hey) to say "I love you"
You can't deny (Hey, hey, hey) because I know the world too
What does it take to know what a mother
What does it take to give me love in you
Oh

What does it take to keep the brakes on the vibe
Little bit of love, a hand in the sky
Hey, (Ooh) what does it take to keep my (Ooh) arms open wide
(Ooh) What does it take to keep my (Ooh) heart with a smile

What does it take (Hey, hey, hey) to keep loving you
You've been calling my name (Hey, hey, hey) come too
Love, what does it take (Hey, hey, hey) to let my dreams come true
What does it take (Hey, hey, hey) to just keep loving you
Keep loving you
Keep me loving you, oh yeah
Keep on loving you
What does it take
