

Coloured Rain

Al Kooper

Yesterday I was a young boy searching for my way
Not knowing what I wanted living life from day to day.

Till you came along, there was nothing but an empty space and a pain.

Feels like coloured rain
Tastes like coloured rain
Bring on coloured rain
Yeah!

I can see a sail of changing filling with surprise
United with a feeling, bringing love into my eyes.

Till you came along, there was nothing but an empty space and a pain.

Feels like coloured rain
Tastes like coloured rain
Bring on coloured rain
Yeah!
