The Warning

Al Kooper

Elijah told ‘em on the mountainside
Enoch told ‘em in the valleys too
A man is comin who will turn the tide
A man disguised as me & you

Someone’s on the cross again
Someone’s throwin dice
One time ‘round was bad enough
Do we have to do it twice?

And rumor has it that the Holy Man
Healed the sick with gentle words he said
And caused confusion in the Holy Land
Until the only word left was dead

Someone’s on the cross again
Someone’s throwin dice
One time ‘round was bad enough
Do we have to do it twice?

So help your brother when he reaches out
Ya know he'd rise up if he only could
Let him whisper don't ya make him shout
Ya know he’s standin’ where the Saviour stood

Someone’s on the cross again
Someone’s throwin dice
One time ‘round was bad enough
Do we have to do it twice?
Someone’s on the cross again
Do we have to do it twice?
