

She Follows Her Own Rules

Al Stewart

Everything
I do is wrong
I don't know how
To please her
Don't see how
We get along
And yet it seems
That I need her
When I try
I turn away
Something seems
To hold me
I don't know what
To do or say
Everybody has told me

You know she follows her own rules
You know she follows her own rules

I think it's going to Turn me cra-
This crazy interaction
Opposites
In every way
That used to be

The attraction
She know, she follows her own rules
He know, she follows her own rules

You, jump off that [?]
Don't think that's what you do
Can't you see it's true

This love
Is very strange indeed
I don't think
I understand it
Let it just
Wash over me
[?] that I planned it

She know, she follows her own rules
She follows her own rules

You know, she follows her own rules
