```
1. I saw you star-ing at each oth - er
   I saw your eyes be-gin to glow
   And I could tell you once were lov-er's
   You ain't hidding nothing I don't know
R: There's an old flame, burning in your eyes
   That tears can't drown, and make-up can't disguise
   That old flame may not be stronger, but it's been burning lo nger
            D7
   Than any spark I might have, started in your eyes
   C
2. You said it ended when he left you
   You say your love for him is gone
   But those old memories still up set you
   For I might be a memory before to long
R: There's an old flame...
   Cause there's an old flame, burning in your eyes
```