

Be With You Again

Alain Clark

(Verse)

I can feel the world around me fade away and slowly fall apart
I never could imagine I'd be left with just the memory of your love
In my heart

(Chorus)

I would pay the highest toll, pray to God or sell my soul
I would give my life away and trade it for a single day
I would be the Antichrist, wave my place in paradise
I would truly give up everything to be with you again
(To be with you again)

(Verse)

I can't explain the pain I feel, but sometimes feels impossible to bear
And how am I supposed to carry on as like the world is just the same
Without you here

(Chorus)

I would pay the highest toll, pray to God or sell my soul
I would give my life away and trade it for a single day
I would be the Antichrist, wave my place in paradise
I would truly give up everything to be with you again
(To be with you again)

(Bridge)

And we'd be callin' and talkin', holding all the time
We'd be forever and ever and ever entwined
We'd be be callin' and talkin' all the time
We'd be together again, and I'd do whatever keep us apart, no!
I would truly give up everything to be with you again
Be with you again
