Hold on, everything will be allright
Hold on, love is on the other side
And when she's down and blue
You don't understand her, no
You got to see it through
And try to be tender
Hold her hand, yeah
And just show her that you're her man
Hold on, everything will be allright
Hold on, love is on the other side
Oh, yeah
Whenever she needs somebody
To blow off steam to, yeah,
You just take her your world and try to live what she's been trough
Take your time (take your time)
And you will find what you want
It's just a little ... someone that can ease you mind
Hold on, everything will be allright (everything will be allright)
Hold on, love is on the other side
Hey!
(Everything will be allright)
When she smiles,
she can light a thousand days
So give her all your glory
.. to find a story
One day she's gonna ... it all back to you
Hold on, everything will be allright
(everything will be allright)
Hold on, love is on the other side
Hey!
Show her that you love her forever
Show her that you need her forever
Everything will be allright
Everything will be allright
