Alaina Castillo

Shut the fuck up
I know you're obsessed about us
You know I'd cut a throat for your love
Let me mine your desires
Got game at home
Boy you in a league of your own
But I'ma make this bed a warzone
Make your night, I'm inspired

How am I supposed to let you just go like that (Go like that)
You love a crazy bitch I be knowing that

You could never stay away
Got you craving me all day
Once you're in my state of mind
I'll never let you escape cause it's too late
I got you babe

Shut the fuck up
Why you think I'm acting so sus
I love it when you're trying to act tough
Don't you lie, it's exciting
Keep playing that game
Boy your chakra strength is insane
You're putting Uzumaki to shame
You're divine, no denying

How am I supposed to let you just go like that (Go like that)
You love a crazy bitch I be knowing that

You could never stay away
Got you craving me all day
Once you're in my state of mind
I'll never let you escape cause it's too late
I got you babe

Wake the fuck up
Ya trying to sleep on us
Wake up, my love
Is gonna keep you lusting for the way that you lose (Ohhh)
Cause all my love, goes into pleasing you
Ya know its dubs and you been feigning
The way you feel when I'm close to you

You could never stay away
Got you craving me all day
Once you're in my state of mind
I'll never let you escape cause it's too late
I got you babe

Shut the fuck up
I know you're obsessed about us
You know I'd cut a throat for your love
