

The Secret

Alan Parsons

Just a little bit of the intricate
Hands moving on the sly
Watch my very quick and magical trick
It's much faster than the eye
And if you blink you'll miss it rightly so
And you know many try
To figure it out all alone
They don't get it

Don't look away from me
You won't get it
Don't look away from me
I might have something up my sleeve
That challenges your belief
Don't ever look away from me
If you want to know the secret

Sorry, can't resist giving fate a twist
But no one needs to be afraid
No mirrors or wires or no flash of fire
It's well within your gaze
And if you blink you'll miss it rightly so
And you know life's too hard
To figure out alone
You won't get it

Don't look away from me
You won't get it
Don't look away from me
I might have something up my sleeve
That challenges your belief
Don't ever look away from me
If you ever want to know the secret

Can't look away from you
You won't get it
Don't look away from me
I might have something up my sleeve
That challenges your belief
Don't ever look away from me
If you ever want to know the secret
