

Born to Ride

Alan Walker

Head to my heart
Hand on your chest
I have the best of intentions
I've played my part
But who did the rest
Don't wasting breath on redemption

Who do you love when it isn't me
'Cause we fall apart inevitably
Sometimes what you want
Just ain't what you need
And you know me

Baby, I was born to run
Baby, I was born to run
Ain't nobody ever gonna slow me down
'Cause I
I'm looking for the number one
Only me, myself and I
Ain't nobody ever gonna hold me down
Baby, I was born to run

Hand to the wind
Head in the sky
Yeah baby that's where I'm headed
But you fenced me in
For too long a time
So, let's forgive and forget it

I'm not the one, it's easy to see
'Cause we fall apart inevitably
Sometimes what you want
Just ain't what you need
And you know me

Baby, I was born to run
Baby, I was born to run
Ain't nobody ever gonna slow me down
'Cause I
I'm looking for the number one
Only me, myself and I
Ain't nobody ever gonna hold me down
Baby, I was born to run
