

Fake A Smile

Alan Walker

You and I up all night
Nothing's wrong, nothing's right
I swear these walls are upside down
Swear the roof is underground
Demons don't sleep at night
Oh, oh, oh

I try to turn off my mind
Say I'm doing just fine
But I'm screaming inside like (Oh)
Say these words on repeat
While I'm trying to breathe
Now you're counting on me

So I fake a smile
But I know you know me too well
But it's alright
You're like heaven when I'm in hell

You were there, held me hard
Tasted light but felt the dark
I'm waiting for them all to see
I don't deserve your company
To love myself is way too hard
Oh, oh, oh

I try to turn off my mind
Say I'm doing just fine
But I'm screaming inside like (Oh)
Say these words on repeat
While I'm trying to breathe
Now you're counting on me

So I fake a smile
But I know you know me too well
But it's alright
You're like heaven when I'm in hell

No sleep, no sleep
It's alright, it's alright
No sleep, no sleep

So I fake a smile
But I know you know me too well
But it's alright
You're like heaven when I'm in hell
So I fake a smile
But I know you know me too well
But it's alright
You're like heaven when I'm in hell

So I fake a smile
But I know you know me too well
But it's alright
