

Somebody Like U

Alan Walker

Reflections in the mirror, bathroom light
Both ends on the same gun, holding tight
Why are you still glued in my mind
Silly little me can't win this fight

Even though I know that you were forgot
And instead of maybe moving on
I'm catching these feelings, holding on to the pieces
It's hitting me hard now when I'm

Dancing with somebody like you
Lose myself in every move
Oh, I hate the things you're makin' me do
Somebody like you
It hurts like hell
Searching for you with someone else
But I can't help myself, I do
Somebody like you

Looking for your Prius in the parking lot
I know it's not there, but it's all I got Rain is pouring down, drown in my thoughts
I guess you've found yourself another spot

Even though I know that you were forgot
And instead of maybe moving on
I'm catching these feelings, holding on to the pieces
It's hitting me hard now

Dancing with somebody like you
Lose myself in every move
Oh, I hate the things you're makin' me do
Somebody like you
It hurts like hell
Searching for you with someone else
But I can't help myself, I do
Somebody like you

Somebody like you
