

Bad Little Girl

Alana Grace

I've been thinking of the way that we were
How you used to use what was mine alone
I've been hopeful I've been honest with you
But you've gone too far this time

Disloyalty's been hurting me
It's plain to see who lies

Bad little girl
Rotten to the core
Ain't no friend to me no more
This is not a fight
This is no goodbye
This is go to hell and you know why
I've felt your knife, I know the feeling
Haunting words behind my back
Bad little girl
Rotten to the core
Ain't no friend to me no more

You knew I loved him
So you wanted him too
And he fell for you
What a nice surprise
And now you're sorry
You've been sorry before
The only difference is I'm not

You manipulate to compensate
For anything you're not

Bad little girl
Rotten to the core
Ain't no friend to me no more
This is not a fight
This is no goodbye
This is go to hell and you know why
I've felt your knife, I know the feeling
Haunting words behind my back
Bad little girl
Rotten to the core
Ain't now friend to me no more

Now the light shines brightly
As it shatters my memories of you

I've been thinking
Of the way that we were

Bad little girl
Rotten to the core
Ain't no friend to me no more
This is not a fight
I've felt your knife, I know the feeling

Bad little girl
Rotten to the core

Bad little girl yeah
