

Where Are You Now

Alana Grace

All these scenes from my life
Playing back through my mind
I try not to forget the past
I've learned from every moment
And I've moved on

Chorus:

Every time I wish that things could be better
I look back and see so many who've come and gone
All I want to do is write you a letter
Where are you now?
Where are you now?

Working never indulging
Sweet, kind, never complains
Waiting for your phonecall to come
Thin skinned and easily wounded
Just and kind

Chorus:

Every time I wish that things could be better
I look back and see so many who've come and gone
All I want to do is write you a letter
Where are you now?
Where are you now?

Dancing with you driving home late at night
Watching the rain fall and stars in the light

Every time I need a hand to hold on to Every time I need a hug and a warm embrace

Every time I wish that things could be better
I look back and see so many who've come and gone
All I want to do is write you a letter
Where are you now?
Tell me where are you now?

I've closed every chapter
And I have said my goodbyes
You will always be with me
You're a part of my life

Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Where are you now?
Where are you now?
