I'm a church Sunday morning I'm a fire Friday night Don't kiss on a first date But ask me to stay and I might Don't drink around my momma But I drink around my friends I can tell them to move on When I still ain't over him Oh, it's wrong and right Oh, that's just livin' life A little bit wild A little bit tame It's a fine line, isn't it? A little bit lost A little bit saved Ain't we all just a little bit Hypocrite Hypocrite I'm a lover not a fighter But I'll swing if I have to I try not to lie But when the truth hurts I'll lie to you Oh, it's wrong and right Oh, that's just livin' life A little bit wild A little bit tame It's a fine line, isn't it? A little bit lost A little bit saved Ain't we all just a little bit Hypocrite Hypocrite I ain't the bad guy But I ain't no angel I think the best kind's somewhere in the middle Ain't complicated But it ain't that simple Love me or hate me Maybe I'm a little bit wild A little bit tame It's a fine line, isn't it? A little bit lost A little bit saved Ain't we all just a little bit Hypocrite Hypocrite Hypocrite
