

Trust Issues

Alana Springsteen

I don't recognize myself
Baby, you got me jaded
Used to love you hard as hell
And now you're someone I hate, and I hate it
Red flags too bad I couldn't tell
I hope you're proud of yourself

Thank you for all of the lies
And thank you for wrecking my life
Thank you for the tears and the unnecessary drama
Can't believe I let someone like you around my mama
Thank you for breaking my heart
And thank you for leaving a scar
You got all my love and then you even took the truck too
And all I got are trust issues

I bought my therapist a house
With all the damage you did me
I didn't know you'd let me down
From the way that you kissed me, it kills me
The dumbest thing I ever done
Is tell my friends you were the one

So thank you for all of the lies
And thank you for wrecking my life
Thank you for the tears and the unnecessary drama
Can't believe I let someone like you around my mama
Thank you for breaking my heart
Thank you for leaving a scar
You got all my love and then you even took the truck too
And all I got is trust issues

(All I got is trust issues)

Thank you for all of the lies
Thank you for wrecking my life
You got all the best of me and get to take it with you
And all I got is trust issues
