

I'll Remember

ALA.NI

And if we never ever meet again
I'll remember kissing you
Will you remember kisses too?

And if we never ever meet again
Then the memory of love will see us through

When you left, my heart was drowning
In tears, so much I cried
But then a little voice spoke to my heart
And told me I will be just fine

For if we never ever meet again
I'll remember kissing you
Will you remember kisses too?

And if we never ever meet again
Then I'll remember
Will you remember?
Oh, I'll remember loving you
