

Seaweed

ALA.NI

When the golden sun hides
And the moon calls
Hear the rhythm of the waves
Step on to the shore
Something drifting, touching me in whispers
Tangle me and tangle you
Mysteries in deep blue
Seaweed in the night
Strangers paradise
Take me with your tide

I could have stayed all night
Listening to your moonlit lullabies
How do I remain the same
When I know the ocean holds your name

Dancing our own underwater ballet
Gracefully you bend my soul
Swaying in the flow
Trusting in your arms, we float together
The stillness is so satisfying
Can I be here forever
Seaweed in the night
Strangers paradise
Take me with your tide

And I could have stayed all night
Listening to your moonlit lullabies
And how do I remain the same
When I know the ocean holds your name

Hope they never fade in time
Your moonlit lullabies
And I will never stay the same
When I know the ocean holds your
Ocean holds your name
Name

When the golden sun hides and the moon calls
I remember every tide
Every ripple, every sigh
Dancing with the moonlight
The seaweed on the shore
