When the silence
Pushed the love away
And there's feelings lost in cyberspace
With this parting filling up with rage
What is needed
Falling hard with grace
Pain and love is true
Holding out for you
Fading
On and on it takes
I'm giving it away
Holding it for days
Reason comes to late
Got no patience
With this masquerade
I'm not falling
Till you catch my wave
And there's beauty only steps away
All these silly games you want to play
Pain and love is true
Holding out for you
Fading
On and on it takes
I'm giving it away

Let's just forget it
The turning tides
The wave is coming
It's rolling
Don't know if we'll survive
Why can't you get it
Well won't you try
I don't think we can make it
I see it in your eyes
I hope you get it
You have to try
You don't have to lie
You just have to try
You just have to try
You just have to try
I feel it's crashing it's burning
I see it in your eye
Girl now don't you get it
I get it
Why don't cha see it
I see it
Why don't cha feel it
I feel it
Why won't cha hear it
I hear it

Why won't cha get it
I get it
Why don't cha get it
I get it
Why won't cha get it
I get it

Why won't cha get it
I get it
Why won't cha get it
Why won't you try
It's crashing it's burning
We can't just let it die
