

Cry Baby

Albert Hammond

If I hurt you
'Twas not my intent to
I've spent to long trying
I've done my share of lying
Love don't come with no guarantees
So don't Cry Baby
Cry Baby
Love can spin all your dreams to gold
It can Fill your heart
It can warm your soul
But it sure don't come with no guarantee
So don't Cry Baby
Cry Baby
Put you tears away
High above the rain
Let your love light shine
No one wants to Cry Baby
Let your spirits rise
Off the velvet clouds
No use feeling down
No one wants to Cry Baby
Cry Baby
Love can be like a carousel
With its ups and downs
And its madden bells
But it sure don't come with no guarantee
So don't Cry Baby
Cry Baby

Put you tears away
High above the rain
Let your love light shine
No one wants to Cry Baby
Let your spirits rise
Off the velvet clouds
No use feeling down
No one wants to Cry Baby
Cry Baby
Love can be like a carousel
With its ups and downs
And its madden bells
But it sure don't come with no guarantee
So don't Cry Baby
Cry Baby
