

Moonlight Lady

Albert Hammond

B Cm F B
It was late in the night, when I came by an open window
Cm F B
She was in satin and lace in the glow of a softly fire
Cm F B
She had secrets so share, 'cause she'd been everywhere the wind blows
Cm F B
And so deep in her eyes lay the mirror of my desire

Cm F B
Moonlight Lady, come along with me
Cm F
Leave your dark city lights, its alright
B
'Cause the nights on me
Cm F B
Moonlight Lady, come along with me
Cm F
Leave your dark city lights, its alright
B
'Cause the nights on me

B Cm F B
And so softly we walked through the streets of a sleeping city
Cm F B
Waking up dreams that lay quit a million years
Cm F B
And I silently weep that the power of her golden beauty
Cm F B
'Cause I knew that we 'd have to forget we were ever here

Cm F B
CHORUS: Moonlight Lady, come along with me
Cm F
Leave your dark city lights, its alright
B
'Cause the nights on me

Cm
There were beggers and kings and a magical sky
Gm
There were wings in the air an I learned how to fly
Cm B
There was me, there was you and suddenly you were gone

B C#m F# B
Moonlight Lady, come along with me
C#m F#
Leave your dark city lights, its alright

B
'Cause the nights on me
