

Crosscut Saw

Albert King

I'm a crosscut saw, just drag me across your log
You know I'm a crosscut saw, just drag me across your log
I cut your wood so easy for you, you can't help but say "Hot dog"

Some call me wood-choppin' Sam
Some call me wood-cuttin' Ben
The last girl I cut the wood for, you know she want me back again

I'm a crosscut saw, just drag me across your log
I cut your wood so easy for you, you can't help but say "Hot dog"

I've got a double-bladed axe that really cuts good
But I'm a cross cut saw, just bury me in the wood

I'm a cross cut saw, baby just drag me 'cross your log
I cut your wood so easy for you woman, you can't help but say 'Hot dog'
