

If You Ever Change Your Mind

Albin Lee Meldau

You saved my life
How can I repay you?
Firefly
Did the only thing you could do
A suicidal dive
I never would've come through

Two of us
Busking in the station
Off our heads
Singing for salvation
A joyful mess
Just an aberration
You should have left
For your information

If you ever change your mind
Come and join me on the other side
Of that separation line
Between life and a life worth living
Take just to keep on giving
It isn't such a great divide

At 17
Fighting off the boredom
Not so clean
Nowhere near a problem
But who will need
An angel when he's fallen?

If you ever change your mind
Come and join me on the other side
Of that separation line
Between life and a life worth living
Take just to keep on giving
It isn't such a great divide
