

Mayfly

Albin Lee Meldau

I miss your love
But I miss nothing else
That place within you my babe
Which the universe dwells
What is a king
Without his queen?
Only one day the Mayfly flew
On a silver screen

I adore you my love
So won't they let me depend?

What is a boat
Without it's name?
Destined to sink my babe
When the mighty waves came
And I'm a fool with all my love letters
When I'm stuck in a trench
Surrounded by many
My lit cigarette's drenched

I adore you my love
So won't they let me depend?

My love for you gon' be just like a circle
And no circle has an end
