

Merry Christmas On Your Own

Albin Lee Meldau

Kinda nice to be at home
Having breakfast on your own
Then a cigarette, still thinking about
Your kiss

What sir, are you bored?
Just a fancy pantomime, after all
I'm better off just thinking of your kiss

Oh, you're not sad at all
Did you ever get that job?
Did you change your hair?
Does it treat you well?
Do I really care?

It's nice to have a drink
Without having to care about what you think
But at night it comes
Still dreaming of your kiss

A fresh face won't make it easier
Bulls and bills just make it worse
Kinda nice to be alone
Merry Christmas on your own

I'm better off just thinking of
I'm better off just thinking of
I'm better off just thinking of
Your kiss
